My Child, My Princess: A Parable About The King

H.I.S. is a non-profit Christian Dance Academy whose mission is to develop Christian character through excellence in dance instruction while impacting the Grand Rapids community for Christ. H.I.S. is comprised of over 350 families. Our productions are held at the DeVos Center for Arts and Worship at Christian High School and draw approximately 2000 attendees.

The Ensemble which is the outreach division of H.I.S. will be presenting an original classical ballet based on the book, My Child My Princess: A Parable About The King by Beth Moore. This ballet adaptation is about a young princess who runs away only to discover that freedom comes at a cost for a child of the King.

*Please consider becoming a Grand Sponsor of this Ensemble Production to be held March 17, 2012 at 3pm & 7pm
